Date: 06/01/2026

Dear Respected Professors/Researchers/Academicians,

Good day!

We are glad to inform you that the Rajshahi University of Engineering & Technology (RUET) is going to publish “Journal of Engineering and Applied Science (JEAS)” in upcoming issues (Volume 10, 2026). The editorial board will be delighted to consider your original research article for publishing in JEAS. The authors are requested to submit their original research article through the JEAS website: <http://www.jeas.ruet.ac.bd> .

It is also noted that a research article can be submitted anytime and the review process will be started immediately after receiving the manuscript. After reviewing articles, the editorial board will publish the accepted articles in the current issue.

If you have any queries regarding the JEAS, please feel free to inform us through this e-mail: jeas@ruet.ac.bd

Thank you very much for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

(Prof. Dr. Abdul Khaleque)
